

Refugee Preventive Health Program (RPHP)

The Refugee Preventive Health Program helps refugees to stay healthy by educating and assisting those with cardiovascular risk factors to manage or treat their conditions.

- Screen incoming refugees for cardiovascular disease (CVD) risk factors
- Provide referral to primary care providers for those identified at risk of cardiovascular disease

- Provide health education on cardiovascular disease risk factors

- Provide follow-up services to those identified at risk for CVD to maintain or increase self-management skills